Tombstone Monument Ranch & Cattle Company
February 20-27, 2022

ENJOY Breathtaking views of the surrounding mountains acres of unspoiled land at this dude ranch fashioned as an Old Western town from year 1881. You are invited to experience a week-long intense program to hone your Horsemanship and Riding skills. It's now time to explore the area on top of a horse, listen to live music or take a walk to be a part o history and see the Monument of Tombstone's founder Ed Schiefflin. Stay where Cowboys and Indians used to fight, feel the spirit of the Apaches and breathe the fresh air of the Wild West. Enjoy this All-Inclusive educational vacation that features accommodations, all meals, riding activities, Horsemanship and Riding workshop and ranch entertainment. The ranch is located just two miles northwest of Tombstone, the legendary Wild West town where famous gunfights between Wyatt Earpp, Doc Holiday, Clantons and McLaurys took place.

Your instructor in “Partnership and Confidence Building Horsemanship”, Katherine Barbarite, will be teaching a straight forward set of exercises that aids in the development of a calm confident horse and rider. No matter the skill, level or discipline, these steps remove fear and resistance, elevating trust, communication and bond. Understand the importance of herd structure and leadership, to enhance safety and promote growth. Learn why bad timing and poor releases lead to unhappy horses.

“Ask...Wait...Give for Results” “Connect with the Mind, Their Feet will Follow”...

Certified Horse Trainer / Certified Horsemanship Association Riding Instructor (Western & English)

Partner up with your horse and start building confidence and riding skills. Confront and overcome anxiety and fear that is caused by the unknown. I increasing your confidence by understanding the mechanics of the four legs underneath you. Understand the” why, how and when” of communication when on the ground and in the saddle. This will gracefully improve your timing, finesse, balance and feel. Most of all, “Become more than a passenger, become a true Partner”.

Clinic Details

Week long workshops are designed for those wanting to improve their confidence, communication, partnership and safe riding skills with horses. Professionals as well as pleasure riders benefit greatly this week of intense study and fun. As the week progresses each day builds on the previous. Each day takes on its own personality, as trail rides take you into rolling mountains and numerous multi colored canyons, discovering about the fern and fauna. Swimming, shooting authentic 1800's era guns, adult camaraderie develops. Chuckwagon camp fires, Wine tasting, music, storytelling, or even dancing the night away during the barn dance. Try your hand in western poker like Wyatt Earpp and recapping the day's events with new friends during happy hour. Viewed as an Adult Camp with a theme. This format has the highest retention by all students of all disciplines and levels. Working with a large variety of horses with varying personalities and issues, is an invaluable opportunity and critical to the learning process. There is no substitute for handling dozens of horses this week.
